

AC&C Education Classes
Sunday Morning May 7, 2017
Hyatt Regency Rochester, Rochester NY

9:00 - 10:00

Class 1: Presentation To Performance by Mark Kettner Mark Kettner, certified Performance Judge, will describe the judging program's journey from Presentation to Performance. Discussion will center around the elements of impactful performances, and why this transition was needed to help barbershop grow and become relevant in today's world of entertainment. Location: Loftus C. Carson Room

Class 2: Singing Through Your Break by Denise Dyer Let's go for a drive! As we develop a road map and go exploring we must first prepare our vehicle. This will be a field trip like no other as we develop a route, and prepare and operate a motor vehicle. Prior driving experience is helpful (just kidding), but not required. Intrigued? Come explore with us!
Location: Wilmorite

9:00- 10:30

Class 1: Interpretation Demystified by Brent Graham Learn to identify the theme of any song and design an interpretation plan based on that theme. Members will create an interpretation plan for part of one song. Learn how to move from the learning track to your own interpretation using the tools learned in class. Location: Regency Ballroom C

10:00 - 11:00

Class 1: Conquering The Aging Voice by Sandi Wright Phonation....what is it? What happens to your breath support, your vocal health? What happens to your voice as you age and what can you do?
Location: Loftus C. Carson Room

Class 2: What Makes It Barbershop? by Kathy Greason In this class, participants will listen to music to explore and identify the elements of the barbershop style. Location: Wilmorite

Class 3: Sing With The Queens with For Heaven's Sake (1996) and Live-Wire (2015). $3.00 donation with proceeds to Youth Outreach.
Location: Regency Ballroom A

10:30 - 12:00

Class 1: Coaching Under Glass by Alan Gordon Watch and learn as two quartets are coached in an open forum. Location: Regency Ballroom C
